Q. Please provide on a table a listing of conversions from oil to electric heat for the period 1998 to current and forecast.

A. The Company does not have information related to the number of customers converting from oil to electric space heating. However, the Company does have information on the number of customers converting to and from electric space heating. This information does not identify the fuel that the electric space heating customer converted to or from (i.e. wood, oil, or propane).

Table 1 below lists conversions to and from electric space heating for the period 1998 to forecast 2004.
