

1 Q. Please provide details of the boarding arrangements made for these mobile forces
2 and as to how the contract was reached to provide boarding and meals for these
3 forces.
4

5 A. Newfoundland Power's arrangements for the provision of accommodations and meals for 6 mobile workforces are governed by the collective agreement between the Company and
7 the union representing its craft employees. This contract is the result of negotiations
8 between the Company and the bargaining unit.
9

10 The Company does pay for accommodations and provides a per diem meal allowance.
11 Employees can elect to be paid an allowance of $75.00 per day to cover per diems,
12 accommodations and all other expenses.