

Information Technology

General

Q. Provide a definition of Labour–Internal when used for costing under the “Information Systems” Classification.

A. “Labour – Internal” refers to the labour costs for regular and/or temporary employees of Newfoundland Power.